

Hello,

I fully support the Welsh Government's proposals for the Black Route for the M4 Corridor around Newport and urge the Government to push ahead and complete this project as soon as possible. The current M4 reached its capacity many years (if not decades) ago and is subject to constant delays and holdups, which have a detrimental effect on the South Wales economy and beyond.

Regards,

Nick Jones.